

Aside from being the Editor-in-Chief of Equinox, I have had other experiences with journalism and writing.

- 1) Head of World Press at SISHMUN: SISHMUN is my school Sishya's Model UN event. As the Head of World Press, I supervised a team of fifteen editors, reporters, artists, and photographers who took minutes of every committee's sessions. I was also the Editor-in-Chief of 'Munifesto', the MUN's newsletter.
- 2) I have been contributing to Newsish, my school's magazine, by writing and formatting since 2018.
- 3) I'm a member of the editorial team at Narratable Organisation, a blog for teens and students on current affairs and other issues.
